RE: Speech Invitation
 Annual Membership Luncheon of the Metropolitan Atlanta Crime Commission
 Atlanta, Georgia
 6-8 January 1988

Congressman Patrick L. Swindall (Atlanta) has invited you on behalf of the Metropolitan Atlanta Crime Commission to be their keynote speaker at their annual Membership Luncheon 6-8 January, 1988 at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in downtown Atlanta.

This non-profit Crime Commission has served the Atlanta metropolitan area for twenty-one years as citizen advocates for improvement of the criminal justice system. The United Way is the primary source of funding for the Commission and the luncheon is their key fundraiser to supplement the United Way support. The primary interests of the organization include law enforcement, courts, corrections, and juvenile justice. Since your responsibilities no longer include law enforcement, I do not believe this is an appropriate forum for you to address. If you agree, I have attached a letter of regret to Congressman Swindall for your signature.

Dear Congressman Swindall:

Thank you for your kind invitation on behalf of the Metropolitan Atlanta Crime Commission to be the keynote speaker at their annual Membership Luncheon in early May 1988.

As Director of Central Intelligence, I no longer have responsibility for law enforcement. Therefore, I believe it is not appropriate for me to address the Crime Commission at this time. Again, thank you for the honor, and please send my good wishes in support of the members' endeavors on the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Webster:

I am taking this opportunity to contact you on behalf of the Metropolitan Atlanta Crime Commission. This very distinguished group is extremely proud to extend an invitation to you to be the keynote speaker at their annual Membership Luncheon in early January 1988.

This non-profit group has served the Atlanta metropolitan area for twenty-one years as citizen advocates for improvement of the criminal justice system. Their primary areas of interest include law enforcement, courts, corrections and juvenile justice. The United Way is the primary source of funding for the Commission and this particular event is extremely important because it is their key fundraiser to supplement the United Way support.

Attendance is expected to be at least several hundred and among the attendees are prominent community leaders as well as professionals in the judiciary, corrections, law enforcement and juvenile justice. In addition, the luncheon has always received a great deal of attention from all levels of the media.

Previous luncheon speakers have included former U.S. Attorney General Griffin Bell, U.S. Attorney Larry Thompson, Senator Sam Nunn, Carlton Turner of the White House Office of Policy Development and Hubert Williams of the Police Foundation.

The tentative dates are January 6, 7, or 8, 1988. The event will be held at the Marriott Marquis in downtown Atlanta, from 12:00 to 1:30 pm.

Your presence at this luncheon would be indeed an honor and I sincerely hope that one of the dates mentioned will be convenient for you to visit Atlanta and address the Metropolitan Atlanta Crime Commission. I would appreciate your contacting Myrlene Pinson in my Decatur, Georgia office as soon as possible.

WHAT IS A CITIZENS' CRIME COMMISSION?

It is an independent, non-partisan non-profit agency.

It is a fact-finding program-planning group of civic and business leaders from throughout the Metropolitan Atlanta Area.

A citizens' crime commission is not a law enforcement agency. Its powers are those which belong to any other citizen.

A citizens' crime commission closely observes government's performance of criminal justice responsibilities. It calls attention to problems and needs, and advocates for all citizens needed programs and changes in the justice system.

WHY A CRIME COMMISSION CAN HELP.

Something can be done about crime through collective citizen actions.

The quality of justice can be independently monitored and criticized if appropriate.

A citizens' crime commission is not dependent on government funds, and therefore will not be influenced by political considerations.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

You can help by taking steps to enhance your personal safety and the security of your home and business.

You can also help by becoming a member of the Metropolitan Atlanta Crime Commission. Join other business and civic leaders in promoting crime prevention and advocating for criminal justice improvements. For more information, write or call the Crime Commission today.
